Ed, Bill, and Dave:

Hank asked me to invite the three of you to join him in this informal session. (Cliff was already scheduled to be in the area on the 19th; we didn't fly him in just for the award.) Cliff doesn't know why he is being asked to come here, so the certificate and check should be a nice surprise for him. Please let me know if you can attend. (Ed: feel free to send [] in your place if there is a schedule conflict.) Thanks,

Jim
